"The HP Slate6 will catch the eye due to its sheer size, smart looks and solid build quality."

India, My Mobile, 1 April 2014

"HP's Spectre 13 Pro is a 13.3-inch Ultrabook with a strong build quality and a vibrant, 144op screen. It's comfortable to use, it's fast, and supplies decent battery life. It's worth checking out if you're after a new notebook for work or personal use."

Australia, Good Gear Guide,10 March 2014

"HP ENVY 17 Leap Motion SE is a very powerful laptop for home entertainment and gaming, in addition to the powerful configuration, its characteristic leap motion is also worth experiencing..."

China, PC Magazine, 15 March 2014

"It's nice to see Chromebooks keeping up with high-end laptops when it comes to connectivity, though. With two USB 3.0 ports, dual-band Wi-Fi, an HDMI port and Bluetooth 4.0, you'll find almost as much connectivity as you would on a high-end laptop."

HP Spectre x360 Notebook series

360° of versatility. Zero compromises.

Distinctive versatility
The unique, durable 360° hinge transitions seamlessly to four modes.

Stunning style from any angle
Turn heads with its ultra slim profile, sleek lines and stylish metal body.[5]

Impressive performance. All-day portability.
Up to 12.5 hours of battery life, so you never miss a second of your connected life.[6]

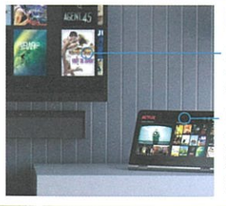

Experience living color.
The Quad HD OLED display[11] renders vivid imagery with superb color and contrast.

Stunning style from any angle

15.9mm 3.26lbs

Elevate your work and entertainment

Project to your TV
Wirelessly send HD content from your PC to your TV or other display for an even bigger picture without the cumbersome cords.

Picture perfect
Every Spectre x360 gives you a near 180° viewing angle with IPS technology. And with 72% color gamut, images appear richer and more natural than before. That means what you see through the camera lens is what you'll see on the screen.
